

FAMILY READING CHALLENGE

RRPL invites you to explore an activity in each of the five Ready-to-Read practices. When you finish, bring the form to our Summer Reading Program table and claim your family's star for our display wall.

Reading

- ☐ Read in an unusual place—and send us a photo!

*familyreading@roundrocktexas.gov**

- ☐ Read to an animal
Need to borrow a dog? Try our Bow Wow program—218-3279.

- ☐ Listen to a story together—how about visiting a storytime, or enjoying an audiobook?

Our formats include CDs, Playaways, and digital downloads through our Overdrive system.

- ☐ Read to someone:
✓older than you &
✓younger than you

- ☐ Read a genre you've never tried
Graphic novels? Non-fiction? Mysteries?

Writing

- ☐ Send a postcard to our pet snake:*

*Miss Rockssanne
c/o Youth Services*

*Round Rock
Public Library
216 E. Main St.
Round Rock, TX 78664*

Or use the mail envelope by her window

- ☐ Write or draw about a great book, then bring it to the library to share

Talking

- ☐ Teach someone a new game
- ☐ Tell three people about a book that you love—can you convince them to read it?
- ☐ Teach someone a song or rhyme
- ☐ Read the same book as a group, and talk about it.
- ☐ Find a great new recipe in one of our books or magazines, and work together to make it—use the Dewey Decimal number 641.5 for cookbooks

Singing

- ☐ Sing in every room of your house
Does the sound change?
- ☐ Sing outdoors
Check out our books of songs—use the Dewey Decimal number 782.42
- ☐ Learn a new song
- ☐ Enjoy a CD from our music collections

Playing

- ☐ Work on a puzzle with friends or family members
- ☐ Make up a treasure hunt for family members, or find local letterboxes & geocaches
- ☐ Explore the library's interactive bulletin boards
- ☐ Play a board game
- ☐ Take your library card to a really fun place—and send us a photo of it there!
*familyreading@roundrocktexas.gov**

For more information about the American Library Association's Ready-to-Read program, please see www.roundrocktexas.gov/readytoread.

*Please note, we may display photos and letters in the library or on our Facebook page